Whippen.-George Lucas, a white men, was before the Mayor this morning charged with slealing meat from the grocery store of Mr. John Rice. The guilt of Lucas was estabreceive twenty lashes on the bareback. The senmewhat after the following manner, which is even for the information of those who have never had the opportunity of witnessing the mode of operation in such cases. The guilty party was led to a grated iron door of a cell; his hands were placed through the openings and handcuffed on the inside; the door was then closed nest locked; his bee'r was then made bare to the waist, and the stripes were laid on calmly and coolly, but at the same time firmly, by a strong man, with a long cow hide. This publishment has terrors to perty thieves that the jail, work house, and even the peritentiary does not possess.

l'olifical.-The conservative readjuster ub met last night, and will meet again to night for "important business." Jones, of the steat Virginia Midland Southern route to Piorida, is in town, perfecting arrangements with Mr. Wheeler for the spleaded Southern trip to Jackson ville. We are glad to learn that the more the ment of this exeursion is investigat d, the more favorable it appears. The tickets are limited in upmb r, and already many of them have been sold, and there is every prospect of even a larger exemision than has heretofore been asticipated."

NARROW ESCAPE. - Robert Beattle, the he the machin ry at Cloud's Mill, in Fairfax Co., owned and operated by Mr. James F. Carlin, of this day, came near being badly injured yes terday. The comforter around his neck caught in a large revolving wheel, and he would have been drawn into the working machinery has for the presence of mind of Mr. Carlin's little son, Frank, who caught hold of the little bay and pulled him out of his parilous

PROMOTED, -Mr. Joseph II. White, formerly of this city. has been promoted from l'assencer Agent of the l'ort Royal and Au gusta Kailroad Company, which office he has filled for a number of years, to Contracting Preight and Passenger Agent of the same Company. Mr. White has many friends in Alexandria who will be glad to learn of his sue cess. He will to doubt give as great satisfaction to the company and the travelling public, in his new as he did in his old position.

FIRE COUNDS ABOLISHED .- The Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, has abolished the fire districts into which the city was recent ly divided, because of the bad condition of the sirieis, and the steam engines are now, as formerly, silawed to proceed immediately to the fire wherever located. The streets being greatly improved, the use of extra herses for the purness of drawing the base carriages, has also been discontinued.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT. - The performance at Armory Hall last night by Mr. John Chempson and his associates was a most agree-able and pleasing entertainment, delighting the undience and giving general satisfaction. Mr. Thomseon is a genus urquestionably, and though suffering from hearseness, sang very well. He plays on every conceivable instrument and can assume almost any character to reflection. These who wish to orjoy a hearty tauch should go by all means.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.-A slight accident occurred on the Virginia Midland railway, near Charlottesville, carly this morning. The engine of a freight train, owing to the heavy fog, run into the e,boose ear of another freight train standing at Mason's water tank, a few miles north of Charlettesville. Both the engine and car were slightly damaged, but no one was burt, Very little delay was caused by the accident.

SUPPOSED ROBBERY .- A lady, accompanied of course, by a gentleman, from this city attetd d the National Theatre, in Washington, last night. After the performance, and wi en on their way to the 6th street depot she discovered that she had lost a gold locker, valued at about $40. It is supposed that she was relieved of her property by a member of the light fiegered fraternity. FOOT BADLY MASHED. - John Rell, formerly of Al-xandria, but now of Washington, a fre-man on the Alexandria and Fredericksburg man on the Alexandria and redericksourg stailroad, while attempting to got on the passinger train in the latter city to come to this city, last night, slipped, and the train passed over his foct, clushing it so badly that it is thought amputation will be necessary.

An Interesting Case. LYNCHBURG, VA. Jap. 20.-A writ ba. been issued in the Clerk's office of the U. S. District Court, in this city, in an action for damages under the Civil Rights til. The writ is made returnable in February, and the case will come up at the March term. The suit is instituted in behalf of Millio T. Whitlow, a white girl livier in Camberland county, by her next friend, Nelson A. Anderson, Miss Whitlow, it appears, has lived for some time in the family of in the family of a negro widower as nurse and house servant, being treated and considered as one of the household. Though nothing specific was alleged as to criminal conduct or character. this made of life tended to injure her reputation in the neighborhood. After leaving the house of Coleman, the negro, the girl entered one of the public schools of the county as a icre last night with a colored man sentenced to punil, upon which the rest of the rebolars all quit attending it. The teacher of the rehood applied for instructions to the School Board and was directed to exclude Mis Whitlow. He did so and she now brings suit for damages All the parties to the suit are white, but the girl lest character by living with a negro es his servant. As this face gives the federal Court jurisdiction it will be a point of no small importance. Alexander Rives will preside at the trial, whose issue is awaited with much in-Lynched,

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 20.—Miss Bossio Werts, daughter of William Werts, living near Prosperity, in Newberry county, this state, was brutally outraged and murdered on Monday evening while going from her brother's house to her home. Two negroes were arrested on suspition and lodged in the guard house. They conforsed their guilt, and last night a large body of men went to lynch them. One was shot to death on the spot where the crime was committed, and the other made his escape, but was recaptured to-day and hanged near Properity by a crowd of whites and blacks. The unfortunate victim was twenty-two year old, and was a beautiful and excellent young woman.

The Late Storm in England.

London, Jan. 2).—With the partial restora-tion of the telegraph wires prostrated by the storm in England, instances of persons being overwhelmed by the snow and frozen to death are reported from various districts. Railway trains in some cases had to be abandoned in the snow drifts where only the funnels of the engines are visible. Solid masses of concrete were scoop-cd out by the waves at Dover pier, and stones weighing more than a ten were washed away. The pier at south end on the Thames, opposite the mouth of the Medway, was carried away by the ice, and a boat which was aiding in the rescue of Person's pier was smashed and eight persons was a crowned. sons were crowned.

Injunction.

New York, Jan. 20.—Rufus Hatch has commenced a suit in the Supreme Court against the Western Union, Atlantic and Pacific, and American Union Telegraph Cos. to prevent the proposed consolidation. This morning he obtained from Judgo Barrett an injurction restraining the defendant companies "from entering into any agreement of consolidation and from increasing their capital stock and other matters." Geo. H. Palmer and A. C. Kenney sign the undertaking on on injunction in the eum of $5,000.

The Pennsylvania Senatorship.

HARRISBURG, PA, Jan. 20.—The third joint ballot for U. S. Senator, was taken at noon to day by the Legislature, without effect. ing an election. The only change from the former ballot was, that Mosers. Clarko and Huhn of I'hiladelphia caucus republicans who had previously voted for Oliver, voted for A. Louden Snowden.

Financial.

New York, Jan. 20.—The Poet's financial says the stock exchange markets at the opening were very strong, so far as they are controlled by speculation. U. S. bonds are unchanged, by speculation. B. S. bonds are unchanged, the refunding bill having had no influence. Railroad bonds are strong to-day although irregular. At the opening the strongest stock sold as high as the following figures: Western Union Tetegraph at 117; American Union S9; Atlantic & Pacific 473; Lake Shore 1257; Union Pacific 133; Northwest 126; Omaha pfd, 107. The strength was of short duration and in the American Union; Union Pacific fell 24; North-west 2 per cent; Western Union Telegraph and Delaware & Hudson 17; Michigan Central and New York Central 18; and Lake Shore and Hannibal & St. Joseph 11 each. This decline was followed by a recovery of 1:17 and this in turn by another decline of 1:3 per cent, the latter Union Pacific. Central Pacific stood comparatively firm, having fallen only 11 per cent. North Pacific pid. fell 7. From this decline there has been another upward turn which is in progress as we write. The money market stands the strain of the rising speculation at the stock exchange as well as cou'd be expected. Yesterday's rates are unchanged.
